Dear :

This letter is in response to a request for a letter ruling dated , as supplemented by correspondence dated , from your authorized representative, in which you have applied for a waiver of the 60-day rollover requirement contained in section 408(d)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code ("Code"), regarding the distribution of Amounts 1 and 2 from individual retirement annuity (IRA B) and individual retirement annuity (IRA C), respectively.

The following facts and representations have been submitted under penalty of perjury in support of the ruling requested:

Taxpayer, age at the time of the distribution of Amount 1 from IRA B and Amount 2 from IRA C, represents that her failure to accomplish a rollover within the 60-day period prescribed by Code section 408(d)(3) was due to her mental and physical conditions which impaired her ability to manage her financial affairs.

Taxpayer is the surviving spouse of Individual A, who maintained IRA B and IRA C, individual retirement annuities under section 408(b) of the Code, with Financial Institution D. Taxpayer is the spousal beneficiary of IRA B and IRA C. Taxpayer, who was married to Individual A for over years, represents that he passed away suddenly on . While alive, Individual A handled all financial matters for Taxpayer and himself. In , Taxpayer instructed Financial Institution D to send her the claim forms she would need. The claim forms and the accompanying correspondence did not indicate the accounts were IRAs. The underlying policies were described as annuity contracts with proceeds payable upon death. Taxpayer submitted the claim forms for IRA B and IRA C in , and , respectively. On , Financial Institution D prepared separate checks totaling Amount 1 (for the proceeds from IRA B) and Amount 2 (for the proceeds from IRA C). Neither check referenced an IRA but included the policy number and the attached invoice stated it was for a death claim. Soon after receiving the checks, Taxpayer deposited Amounts 1 and 2 into Account E, a non-IRA account with Financial Institution F. Amounts 1 and 2 remain in Account E and have not been used for any purpose. In a letter from Taxpayer's doctor, her doctor concluded that on account of Taxpayer's mental and physical conditions, her ability to handle and understand financial matters was clearly impaired throughout the period of time for completing rollovers of Amounts 1 and 2.

Based on the above facts and representations, you request that the Internal Revenue Service ("Service") waive the 60-day rollover requirement contained in Code section 408(d)(3) with respect to the distribution of Amounts 1 and 2.

Section 408(d)(1) of the Code provides that, except as otherwise provided in section 408(d), any amount paid or distributed out of an IRA shall be included in gross income by the payee or distributee, as the case may be, in the manner provided under section 72 of the Code.

Section 408(d)(3) of the Code provides the rules applicable to IRA rollovers.

Section 408(d)(3)(A) of the Code provides that section 408(d)(1) of the Code does not apply to any amount paid or distributed out of an IRA to the individual for whose benefit the IRA is maintained if -

(i) the entire amount received (including money and any other property) is paid into an IRA for the benefit of such individual not later than the 60th day after the day on which the individual receives the payment or distribution; or

(ii) the entire amount received (including money and any other property) is paid into an eligible retirement plan (other than an IRA) for the benefit of such individual not later than the 60th day after the date on which the payment or distribution is received, except that the maximum amount which may be paid into such plan may not exceed the portion of the amount received which is includible in gross income (determined without regard to section 408(d)(3)).

Section 408(d)(3)(B) of the Code provides that section 408(d)(3) does not apply to any amount described in section 408(d)(3)(A)(i) received by an individual from an IRA if at any time during the 1-year period ending on the day of such receipt such individual received any other amount described in section 408(d)(3)(A)(i) from an IRA which was not includible in gross income because of the application of section 408(d)(3).

Section 408(d)(3)(D) of the Code provides a similar 60-day rollover period for partial rollovers.

Section 408(d)(3)(E) of the Code provides that the rollover provisions of section 408(d) do not apply to any amount required to be distributed under section 408(a)(6).

Section 408(d)(3)(I) of the Code provides that the Secretary may waive the 60-day requirement under sections 408(d)(3)(A) and 408(d)(3)(D) of the Code where the failure to waive such requirement would be against equity or good conscience, including casualty, disaster, or other events beyond the reasonable control of the individual subject to such requirement. Only distributions that occurred after December 31, 2001, are eligible for the waiver under section 408(d)(3)(I) of the Code.

Rev. Proc. 2003-16, 2003-4 I.R.B. 359 (January 27, 2003) provides that in determining whether to grant a waiver of the 60-day rollover requirement pursuant to section 408(d)(3)(I), the Service will consider all relevant facts and circumstances, including: (1) errors committed by a financial institution; (2) inability to complete a rollover due to death, disability, hospitalization, incarceration, restrictions imposed by a foreign country or postal error, (3) the use of the amount distributed (for example, in the case of payment by check, whether the check was cashed); and (4) the time elapsed since the distribution occurred.

The information presented and the documentation submitted by Taxpayer is consistent with her assertion that her failure to accomplish timely rollovers of Amounts 1 and 2 was due to her mental and physical conditions which impaired her ability to manage her financial affairs.

Therefore, pursuant to Code section 408(d)(3)(I), the Service hereby waives the 60-day rollover requirement with respect to the distribution of Amount 1 from IRA B and Amount 2 from IRA C. Taxpayer is granted a period of 60 days from the issuance of this letter ruling to contribute Amounts 1 and 2 into a rollover IRA. Provided all other requirements of section 408(d)(3), except the 60-day requirement, are met with respect to such contributions, Amounts 1 and 2 will be considered rollover contributions within the meaning of section 408(d)(3).

No opinion is expressed as to the tax treatment of the transaction described herein under the provisions of any other section of either the Code or regulations which may be applicable thereto.

This ruling does not authorize the rollover of amounts that are required to be distributed by section 408(b)(3) of the Code.

This letter is directed only to the taxpayer who requested it. Section 6110(k)(3) of the Code provides that it may not be used or cited as precedent.

A copy of this letter ruling has been sent to your authorized representative pursuant to a power of attorney on file in this office. If you wish to inquire about this ruling, please contact

Sincerely yours,
